

AtGames® Announces the Legends Ultimate Arcade Machine

Full-Size Arcade Machine Features Legendary Video Games, Cloud Connectivity, and other Amazing Features

Los Angeles – May 30, 2019 - AtGames® Digital Media Inc., a leader in interactive entertainment products today announced the Legends Ultimate arcade machine.

Among the hundreds of games that will appear on this full-size arcade unit is a large selection of classic arcade and home video games from licensors like Atari, ColecoVision, Data East, The Tetris Company, and more. Top game properties include Asteroids, BurgerTime, Centipede, Fighter's History, Pong, and Tetris®, to name just a few. These favorites can be enjoyed from the authentic arcade-style control panel, which includes two joysticks, six action buttons per player, a high-performance trackball, and two spinners.

Among the Legends Ultimate arcade's many exciting features are a modern user interface, intuitive and customizable menu themes, network play, Internet connectivity, leaderboards, and cloud gaming streaming. The included ArcadeNet™ connectivity features free DLC, remote play, tournaments, subscription game library, and BYOG functionality, where you can access PC game libraries. The Legends Ultimate arcade is also expandable, with Bluetooth accessories, cabinet art, light guns, and more, making it the ultimate entertainment platform.

The Legends Ultimate arcade will take limited pre-orders at your favorite retailers starting July 2019. Additional product information will be announced during the Electronic Entertainment Expo (E3) 2019 in June at the Los Angeles Convention Center.
